

Executive Proclamation

State of South Dakota

Office of the Governor

Whereas, Gary L. Hoscheid has served the state of South Dakota's Department of Legislative Audit for over 32 years, having served four of the state's five Auditor Generals; and,

Whereas, Gary's leadership has been invaluable in furthering the department's mission of improving the accountability of government to its citizens and taxpayers; and,

Whereas, Gary has loyally served the state with unwavering professionalism and integrity; and,

Whereas, Gary has generously volunteered his time for community activities and served as an officer and board member for many wildlife organizations; and,

Whereas, Gary's colleagues and friends will miss his hard work and his warm and friendly presence; and,

Whereas, It is fitting and proper as Governor to recognize and congratulate Gary as he officially retires on September 8, 2008, and as his colleagues, friends, and family gather on August 16, 2008, to celebrate this auspicious occasion:

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim September 8, 2008, as in South Dakota.

GARY HOSCHEID DAY

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Seventh Day of August in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Eight.

M. Michael Rounds
M. Michael Rounds, Governor

Attest:

Ieresa J. Bray, Deputy
Chris Nelson, Secretary of State